Special January Offering: Huff's Mission Trip

In June 2020 some of our congregation's members will be traveling for a week to South Dakota to work on an Indian Reservation. In order to help them represent our congregation in this important act of outreach, we invite you to donate to travel costs by putting money into our miniature model church bank during the month of January.

If you donate by check, please write the check to Huff's Union Church and on the memo line write: "2020 Mission Trip" If you would like to receive credit on your giving statement, be sure to either use a church envelope (marking 2020 Mission Trip on a blank line on the front), or use a pew envelope or mark a plain envelope with your information (name, address and envelope number) You may place your church envelopes in the offering plate, as usual.

What is the blank line on my church envelopes?

The blank line is on your offering envelope so you may make special gifts to church-related agencies or special offerings. You may give to any of the special denominational offerings mentioned throughout the year, using this line, or using the special envelope provided in the pew. You may also give to the following denominationally-related agencies: Bethany Children's Home (troubled youth), Topton Lutheran Home (elder care), Bear Creek Lutheran Camp (Christian camping program), Phoebe Home (elder care), Lancaster Theological Seminary (pastoral training), United Lutheran Seminary (pastoral training). You may also give for special disaster relief efforts, as mentioned in church, and, in the month of January, you may give to Huff's Mission Trip..

Un-decorating of the Church

We will need to put away our beautiful church decorations on Saturday, January 11, beginning at 9:00 a.m. Help from all ages is needed. Thank you to all who helped decorate the church for the Advent/Christmas season.

Children's Choir

If your child (age 3 to 12) enjoys singing, why not let them become part of Huff's Children's Choir? Directed by Mrs. Gloria Adams, assisted by Joanne Benfield, Huff's Children's Choir practices Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the worship service, before the Children's Moment, about every six weeks. Questions? Contact Mrs. Adams at 610-914-8116. You may register your child when you come to the first practice. Adults are welcome to stay during practice, or to drop off your children and pick them up by 7:30 p.m. Please come in the back door. For safety reasons, we lock the door when we think most people have arrived. If you need access and the door is locked, please ring the doorbell and someone will let you in.

Annual Reports Due

Because we want to have a complete picture of what is happening at Huff's Church each year, we ask each committee team or group to submit a report annually of what they have done in the previous year. 2019 reports are due in the church secretary's mailbox by January 20. Treasurer's reports are an exception; they will be due in the office by early February 2020.

Church Envelopes for 2020

The 2020 church envelopes are available in the lower Narthex of the church. Because of postage costs, we do not send out a full box of envelopes. If you would like us to send you a few church envelopes for you to mail in or drop off your contributions, please call our office manager, Edwina Fox, at 610-845-2626.

Remember, it helps us to have your contact information. If you have changed your phone number, address or e-mail, please update contact information by contacting us at ministry@huffschurch.com or phoning our ministry assistant, Kelsey Doney, at 610-845-2626. Feel free to leave a message.

Active Membership

Please remember to fill in a communion card for 2020 and place it in the offering plate, and to use your church envelopes, or a Welcome envelope and indicate your name.

To be an active member of Huff's Church our constitutions state that you must either contribute or commune at least once every two years.

Please contact Pastor Kropa if you wish to remain a member, but have a special circumstance of which we should be aware.

Please remember that Pastor Kropa and our lay visitors are available to bring communion to your home if you are unable to attend worship due to limitations of mobility or health. We would appreciate being informed of anyone who would benefit from home communion.

Lunch Bunch

Please join us for the Lunch Bunch to be held on Tuesday, January 21, at noon at the Bower's Hotel in Bowers, PA.

Pastor's Article

Dear Friends,

It is a new year, one that some of you will be glad to begin, and one that others might be feeling reluctant to enter. Isn't life always this way—sometimes you want to prolong every moment, and other times you can't wait for a stage of your life to be over.

Sometimes, we want to drop the past, like a hot potato. Perhaps we're living with the consequences of a bad decision. Perhaps we are tortured with the "what if's" and "why not's" of life. As we consider the new year, why not take a moment to remember that our faith promises second chances. Even when we've messed up royally, God offers us forgiveness, and a new way forward. Of course, we still need to do our best to make amends and to try to correct whatever problems we might have caused by our actions, but the ultimate answer always is, "You are my beloved children; I forgive you."

Some folks think Christians dwell too much on forgiveness. It's as if they think we make up ways to feel guilty, then put each other and ourselves down. Actually, life does a great job at making us feel insignificant, wrong, not good enough. The church exists to give us God's antidote to these negative messages. We proclaim it is possible to teach an old dog new tricks; to change one's heart as well as one's behaviors. How do we know? Because our Bible tells us again and again of God's forgiveness.

God's forgiveness extends to things we've done by mistake, not just deliberate wrong-doing. Sometimes, we never saw that what we did, or didn't do, could cause harm or hurt feelings. I think of children playing near the big plate of glass, stumbling, and one getting hurt by falling against the glass. No one deliberately caused this accident, but everyone felt horrible. God's forgiveness extends to unintentional consequences, and does not assign blame.

This January, why not remember your baptism, and the waters washing away everything that separates you from God? Perhaps you might want to incorporate water in a ritual—when you wash your face, you remember God's washing you with love, and Jesus' promise that he would become living water to all who thirst.

Happy New Year! May this year bring you ever closer to the love of God through Christ Jesus, Our Savior.

In Christian love, Pastor Jane Kropa

Prayer Chain

Huff's Church has a prayer chain to pray for special needs during the year. If you have a name for the prayer chain, please contact John Leaser either by e-mail (birdmanjhl@aol.com) or telephone 610-966-2775. Please be so kind as to notify John when names may be removed from the list.

Would you like to be a part of the prayer chain to receive a monthly printed list of people for whom to pray, and/or periodic e-mailed notifications of those for whom to pray? Please let John Leaser know (see contact information above) and your name will be added to those who receive names for whom to pray.

We thank John for his faithful service on the prayer chain.

Prayer List for Worship

If you would like to submit a name to be prayed for in the worship service, and you have that person's permission to be prayed for, please write the name on the list clipped to the clipboard at the back of the sanctuary on the small lectern. This list is brought to the pastor with the offering.

Names on the list will be prayed for by the prayer chain in the following week. To respect people's privacy, please do not list anyone's name without their permission. You may list the member's relationship to the person we pray about, for example, this is Ms. Jones' brother-in-law, but we ask that you do not list medical information or conditions. You may update the pastor privately, or write details down on a piece of paper, seal it in an envelope and place it in the pastor's mailbox. Paper for notes is in the Sacristy (robe room) in the box on the cabinet where the paraments are kept).

To: Pastor Kropa & Huff's UCC Members

I had a wonderful time celebrating with you and the members of Huff's UCC at their 275th Anniversary of the congregation.

Thank you for inviting me to be part of your celebration and for all you did to make my participation so easy. It was an honor to be present.

Please convey my gratitude to the members of the congregation for all the kind experience of welcome and hospitality throughout my visit. There were so many folks who took time to talked with me! It was especially fun to take part in the meal and fellowship after the worship service. The food was delicious and the conversations were pleasant and relaxing.

The spirit of the celebration was positive and uplifting and it served as a meaningful source of encouragement to me as I carry out my ministry as Synod Bishop.

God Bless you and the members of Huff's Church as you carry out ministry in Jesus' name.

With gratitude

Bishop Sam Zeiser,
Northeastern Pennsylvania Synod

An Epiphany Reflection from the Conference Minister

Tony Robinson reminded me several years ago that the name of this month, "January," comes from the ancient Roman deity, Janus - a lesser god but one who has always made sense to seekers after the heart of the Divine. Janus was the god of gates and doorways. He had two faces, one looking forward, another looking backward. So there is only a little surprise and much gratitude that in Psalm 121 God keeps a particular vigilant watch at our times of "going out and coming in," our times of ending and beginning, and all that is between the two.

Sometimes January, and the beginning of a new year, feels like that. I look back over the year now past. And I peer into the new one just underway. Sometimes I'm not quite sure if I'm coming or going -- which gets reinforced in the New Year every time I write the previous year in the date space on any form I have to sign.

Transitions -- whether of the calendar or in the seasons of our lives -- are crazy-making times. They can be confusing and exhilarating; chaotic and creative. That certainly has been true of our conference life. That's true of our congregational lives where all of us worship in "the church that has been" feeling anxious about "the church that will be." And it's true of our personal lives where change (those we make happen and those that happen to us) is the only constant.

But that is NOT the only constant. When everything else may seem up for grabs or in flux, one thing is not: God's abiding light and love. "I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. Then when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you. When you search for me, you will find me..."

This I know to be true. And it is my prayer for you and all our brothers and sisters in Christ that we move confidently into this New Year holding fast to that which has been good ready to receive what is going to be even better.

God bless your New Year with the Light of this Epiphany Season,

Bill Worley, PSEC Conference Minister (article from 2019)

Pennsylvania Southeast Conference News

Yesterday, [November 19, 2019] I received and presented to Conference Consistory and the Conference Personnel Team, a letter of resignation from Rev. Sharon Morris from her position as Associate Conference Minister for Search and Call.

With much sadness, reluctance and deep gratitude, Conference Consistory received Sharon's resignation effective February 29, 2020 (making her last day a leap year day). The Consistory, working in conjunction with the Conference Personnel Team, will guide us through this time of transition. We ask for your prayers for Sharon, the staff and for our Conference.
